

FEATURES & BENEFITS

Mont La Salle is the oldest continuing producer of altar wines, making wines since 1882. We understand and conscientiously respect the great responsibility involved in the celebration of the Holy Sacrifice.

Mont La Salle Altar Wines are specially produced for sacramental use in strict accordance with Canon Law. We guarantee our wines against any defect in production and assure their quality and true-to-type taste at the time of shipment from the winery. They have approbation from The Bishop of the Fresno, CA diocese along with the Archbishop from the Archdiocese of Cincinnati, OH.

Mont La Salle offers you the most complete selection of sizes and types. There is a perfect choice for every need.

Mont La Salle is the largest-selling brand of altar wines in North America and is currently used in more than 12 countries. Mont La Salle is currently used by religious communities at several prestigious locations including Notre Dame, Georgetown, Boston College, Fordham University and Holy Cross. It was also the exclusive altar wine of the military chaplains during "Desert Storm" and was featured and endorsed by the 70th General Convention of the Episcopal Church.

Mont La Salle Altar Wines have received critical acclaim for quality worldwide. Mont La Salle was signaled out for praise by the Vatican Secretary of State, Cardinal Angelo Sodano at the Third International Seminar on altar wines held in Cocconato d' Asti, Italy in early 1992. Howard Goldberg, wine critic for the New York Times, said in an article "Mont La Salle wines are more pleasant than many commercial jug wines."

Mont La Salle is the only producer of a Grape Juice called "Mustum" that has been endorsed by the National Clergy Council.

Mont La Salle is constantly striving to provide the clergy with products to fit their individual needs.

You can rest assured that our wines are correct for use in church service by their adherence to prescribed quality standards and true-to-type taste appeal for consistent, reliable satisfaction.

Pastors value and respect our tradition and commitment to making high-quality wines. Mont La Salle is a name you can trust.
